The estate of the late Wallace C. Andrews of the New York Steam Company, is shown by an accounting before Robert E. Devo referee to be much larger than was supposed. His personal estate is found to be $3,373,697 and his realty is appraised at $415,148. The appraisal argues well for the institution for girls at Willoughby, Ohio, which is to be incorporated under the will to take the residue, but it has also ied to prospective litigation on the part of Norman C. Andrews, of Youngstown, Dhio, brother of the testator, whose right of action is dependent on the testator's baying left more than half of his estate to charity and on the widow having sur-rived the testator. But from the total estate of $3,788,845 the executor. Mr. St. John, brother-inaw of the testator, has paid debts of $1,968, 100. Black Velvets . . Here for Half.

Two hundred pieces - the greatest Velvet values we ever knew. Velvets and Broadcloths were the principal fabrics shown at the Horse Show - that's enough about their popularity. We are selling them just as fast as we can get them, even at regular prices. Now here come two lots - 5,000 yards altogether - at half the regular prices, and they go to you the same way. But be prompt.

The Velvet has a particularly fine, silk faced, close pile and the black is very rich, and fine—perfect fabrics in every respect.

Women's Smart Tailored Wear. Very New Styles. . Yet Bargains.

Seventy-five demi-tailored Costumes, copies of the newest Winter models from the famous Parisian couturiers. It is the old story—a maker with a little more enthusiasm than judgment—and the Costumes are here at less than they cost to make. They are beautiful and beautifully made.

Not a Costume Is Worth Under $50. . Most Are $65 Values. Seven Styles---Choice To-morrow, $29.75.

Nun's veiling. French serge, hopsacking and cheviot are the materials, in black, navy and royal blues and brown. Waists are smartly trimmed with laces, taffeta silk, narrow braid and small buttons. All are boned and lined with silk. Skirts have graduated flounce and are narrow around hips and extremely wide at bottoms. Some are trimmed with narrow pleats and tucking and all are made over fine taffeta silk drop skirts. Sizes 34 to 40 and plenty of each size.

$13.50 Separate Skirts at $8.50.

These are made of black diagonal cheviot with graduated flounce trimmed with wide band of satin and two rows of narrow cords. Made over taffeta drop skirt with pleated ruffle. Very stylish and small priced.

Women's Coats--Short and Long. The broadest, finest stock of Coats in this vicinity is here now and prices are very moderate. There has been no better chance to fill your Winter need than this:

Black Cheviot---Nearly Half.

Almost half price - and there is nothing in the Store more staple than this very Cheviot. It is an odd trade twist that brings it here for so little

- it will go speedily to-morrow. This Cheviot is all worsted, a splendid black and quality, and fully 50 inches wide. It has the rough finish which is this season's "dressy" effect, too. Dollar a yard was the regular price—85c, the lowest we have known anywhere until we got this to sell at
